Meet 'the Bookless bunch', a very ordinary family who went green. When God challenged him over his attitude to the environment, Dave Bookless did a total rethink. This led to major changes, not only in his family's lifestyle but also eventually in his career: full-time involvement in the global A Rocha movement that aims to care for God's fragile world. But in one sense this book isn't about going green at all. It's a personal account of a life lived in relationship. It's about roots and belonging, suffering and healing, identity and meaning, faith and doubt. It's about how in God's economy nothing need be wasted. This is a story about the messiness that each human being wades through in every area of their lives, and about a God who can take all that seems most wasteful and useless, and recycle it into something of infinite worth. There is an appetite for God. And it can be awakened. I invite you to turn from the dulling effects of food and the dangers of idolatry, and to say with some simple fast: "This much, O God, I want you." Our appetites dictate the direction of our lives - whether it be the cravings of our stomachs, the passionate desire for possessions or power, or the longings of our spirits for God. But for the Christian, the hunger for anything besides God can be an arch-enemy. While our hunger for God - and Him alone - is the only thing that will bring victory. Do you have that hunger for Him? As John Piper puts it: "If we don't feel strong desires for the manifestation of the glory of God, it is not because you have drunk deeply and are satisfied. It is because we have nibbled so long at the table of the world. Our soul is stuffed with small things, and there is no room for the great." If we are full of what the world offers, then perhaps a fast might express, or even increase, our soul's appetite for God. Between the dangers of self-denial and self-indulgence is this path of pleasant pain called fasting. It is the path John Piper invites you to travel in this book. For when God is the supreme hunger of your heart, He will be supreme in everything. And when you are most satisfied in Him, He will be most glorified in you. The Kingdom Mentality is a book that God put in my heart a long time ago. I knew it was the perfect will of God for me to write this book, but I was waiting for God's perfect timing so that it could be released in the right season. In the times that we are living in, many people are not resting in God's peace because they do not spend enough time in God's presence. Financial pressure is one of the biggest things that keep us too busy to make time for God. Satan uses many weapons to attack the mind of an individual in times of crisis, such as stress, anxiety, depression, discouragement about your calling, and probably the worst one is unbelief in the promises of God. If this is your case, then consider this book as a divine appointment of God for your life that will renew your mind, bring about the healing of your faith, and help you to believe that God has more for you because he is a god of second chances. The Bible says that all things work together for good for those who love God and are called according to his purpose. God loves you so much that he wants to take all your failures and disappointments and use them to bless others so what the enemy has meant for evil, God is able to turn it around and use it for good. The fact that this book is in your hands means that God--the god of all provision, the god that has closed so many doors to bring you to the right door--is preparing you to enter into one of the best seasons of your life and that season will begin with one simple thing; that you believe that you qualify to have more because if you do not believe it, then your faith may have been burned down. Probably you have experienced a perceived failure, and you may need to hear the prophetic words that are contained in this book to bring the necessary healing of your faith. Maybe you have forgotten that no matter how bad your present situation looks, God is still in control of everything in your life. Maybe the godly kingdom mentality that you used to have is long gone because you have prayed, fasted, and chased the Lord and nothing changed, or maybe you feel like you cannot continue to live the Christian life anymore, but I have good news for you! God has been working behind the scenes to prepare you to begin a better life, and the only one thing you need to understand is that God works from the inside out, not from the outside in. The apostle Paul said in the book of Romans chapter 12, "Let's be transformed by the renewing of our minds." As a teacher that moves in the prophetic word of knowledge, I am here to tell you that the worst is over for your life and the best is yet to come! I pray that you meditate on the words of this book in the unity of the Holy Spirit of God so the godly mentality that was stolen in the garden from Adam and Eve will be restored when you see the power of his resurrection through the cross by Jesus Christ. I pray that this book will help you to receive the necessary healing of your faith so you will be able to press on toward your destiny even through times of difficulty. I pray that your kingdom mentality will be renewed the way God did it from your mother's womb. Cordially, Pastor Oscar Pelaez This devotional was written to encourage Christians to dedicate themselves to feeding on the Word of God on a consistent basis. The author presents encouraging messages, simple blessings, and food-related scriptures to navigate readers through a seven-day devotional journey. The interactive devotional challenge invites the reader to indulge in a spiritual feast at five different mealtimes: breakfast, morning snack, lunch, dinner, and midnight snack. This devotional allows Christians at all levels of spiritual maturity to reintroduce themselves to the Head Chef by sitting at His holy table and participating in a scriptural smorgasbord. Pull up a chair, begin the challenge, and develop an appetite for God's Word. A glass of wine with your meal can be a fine capstone to a wonderful dinner. Read how wine affected the wedding festival in John 2:1-12. Bottoms up! Key Bible Verse: "Everyone brings out the choice wine first and then the cheaper wine after the guests have had too much to drink; but you have saved the best till now" (John 2:10). With our children almost all raised, I asked God how, in the second phase of our life, we could be a tool for His service. I was not prepared for His answer and the plans He had for us. Whenever you hear God speak to you and you know you are doing exactly what God is telling you to do, satan will be right there to try to make you stop. This is a true story of the many trials and miracles we endured as God unfolded the plans He had for us. This is God's story for without Him this book would not have been written. From the very beginning in Matthew 6:9-13 when God taught us how to pray, right up to the end in the courtroom when we literally felt the breath of the Holy Spirit. I am honored and humbly grateful to have been chosen to be His tool and my prayer is that we can continue serving our Lord as he continues to unfold the plans he has for us. God longs to make Himself known to all people and He wants to use you to do it! Whether or not you believe it, God has given all believers the ability to walk in the same miracle-power as Jesus. Only two simple things are required: faith and preparation. The Lightnings of God offers profound insight for both. Joe Oden has trained thousands of people to walk in the fullness of their God-ordained destinies by operating in the miraculous. He shares true stories of everyday encounters where signs, wonders, and miracles impact real people. In this powerful book, Joe imparts Confidence for laying hands on the sick, and expecting healing. Strategy on positioning yourself for encounters with the fire of God. Boldness to prophesy and move in prophetic evangelism. Hunger for a prayer life filled with Holy-Spirit power. Practical tools for releasing God-encounters to the people around you. So arise and claim your destiny as a vessel through which the Holy Spirit can release The Lightnings of God! Listening for God proceeds from the authors belief that, across a wide spectrum of outlooks, people are attracted to religion, yet wary of it. The book is intended to speak, in an honest and reflective way, to those who have conflicting feelings about religion, and are put off by the needlessly polarized and blithely self-assured style of much writing about it. Grounded in his won religious tradition yet manifesting great respect and appreciation for other traditions, Lesnick recounts the odyssey of his own encounter with religion, from a mild form of conventional adherence to Conservative Judaism as an adolescent, to a long period of alienation from all religion, to a gradual and deepening re-engagement with Judaism through his sympathetic exposure to religions. Lesnick articulates the ways in which the author has found it illuminating to turn to religion as an aid to discernment of moral truth, rather than as a source of metaphysical knowledge or belief. The God of which he speaks is both the repository of truth about moral life and force that draws him to struggle to discern and follow it. The book offers the reader a bridge between apparent polarities too often found in the world and ourselves-between emotion and reason, experience and authority, knowledge and belief, faith and doubt, ethics and ritual, hope and despair. Written by a teacher of law, it asks, where do moral imperatives come from, and how do the answers found in religion and in law affect one another? Listening for God is a record of, and a grateful prayer for, sustaining courage and hope in a fallen world. Discover how to light up your lukewarm faith with a vibrant passion for Jesus. Through her online ministry to young women, Jonni Nicole Parsons knows how it feels to attend an event or energizing church service and leave overcome with excitement for God. Then it's over and a few days go by, and we too often begin living our lives just like before. But what if we didn't have to? What if we could be fired up for God in a lasting and maintainable way that makes a difference--every single day? In this workbook companion to Ignited, Jonni helps readers explore: What we are getting wrong in our quest for a sustainable passionate faith Why Jesus is the only true path to the freedom and satisfaction we are craving How to remove the distractions that are keeping us from feeling purposeful for God's Kingdom What a faith genuinely on fire for God can look like As you journey through this workbook, recognize that God might be bringing you into a new season. He wants to awaken a deep longing for Him in our hearts and souls in our everyday moments. We were never meant to be lukewarm, and The Ignited Workbook offers a fresh perspective on what it means to live a passionate life for Jesus. Sometimes humorous, sometimes poignant, this collection of stories and reflections is based on experiences from the author's life. A heartwarming, chuckle-inspiring book for women of all ages and stages of life, "One Hundred One Upward Glances" chronicles the author's personal spiritual journey, and inspires readers to ponder how God might be at work in their lives. Not so long ago religion was a personal matter that was seldom discussed in public. No longer. Today religion is everywhere, from books to movies to television to the internet-to say nothing about politics. Now religion is marketed and advertised like any other product or service. How did this happen? And what does it mean for religion and for our culture? Just as we shop for goods and services, we shop for church. A couple of generations ago Americans remained in the faith they were born into. Today, many Americans change their denomination or religion, sometimes several times. Churches that know how to appeal to those shopping for God are thriving. Think megachurches. Churches that don't know how to do this or don't bother are fading away. Think mainline Protestant churches. Religion is now celebrated and shown off like a fashion accessory. We can wear our religious affiliation like a designer logo. But, says James Twitchell, this isn't because Americans are undergoing another Great Awakening; rather, it's a sign that religion providers--that is, churches--have learned how to market themselves. There is more competition among churches than ever in our history. Filling the pew is an exercise in salesmanship, and as with any marketing campaign, it requires establishing a brand identity. Successful pastors ("pastorpreneurs," Twitchell calls them) know how to speak the language of Madison Avenue as well as the language of the Bible. In this witty, engaging book, Twitchell describes his own experiences trying out different churches to discover who knows how to "do church" well. He takes readers into the land of karaoke Christianity, where old-style contemplative sedate religion has been transformed into a public, interactive event with giant-screen televisions, generic iconography (when there is any at all), and ample parking. Rarely has America's religious culture been examined so perceptively and so entertainingly. Shopping for God does for religion what Fast Food Nation has done for food. In this six-session small group Bible study, The Reason for God, captures live and unscripted conversations between Tim Keller and a group of people to address their doubts and objections to Christianity. Pack includes one Discussion Guide and one DVD. How much worse could it get for me? After several failed marriages, unemployment, and the threat of losing my house a few years ago, I had to turn to God for a 911 intervention. At that point in time, I just lost my job and my ex-wife had just moved out with all her furniture, including the accessories and mattress. I thought I had reached my limit, but with God's grace I bounced back and refused to be defeated. One of the greatest lessons learned then is to stay faithful to God, hold on to Him because He's the only one that could help me throughout my days in the wilderness. The Audacity of God's power shows how toughness of a man or woman cannot be measured through their physical stature, but rather the ability to stay strong and reach-out to God for assistance. Challenges are inevitable, they are like the weather or a season, no matter how undesirable they appear at one point. A better one will surely replace the not too great ones. As for me, it was my willingness to ask for God's help that ultimately saved me and allowed Him to go the extra mile for me and my family. If God can't prevent evil, what can God do? In his best-selling book, God Can't: How to Believe in God and Love After Tragedy, Abuse, and Other Evils, Thomas Jay Oord solves the problem of suffering. Oord offers five aspects of a real answer to why a loving God doesn't prevent pointless pain. The most helpful: God can't stop evil singlehandedly. In this follow-up, Oord answers questions God Can't readers asked about his ground-breaking proposals. The answers are in this book, and they solve age-old conundrums. Questions and Answers for God Can't addresses questions such as... If God can't control creation, why pray? If God's love is uncontrolling, how do we explain miracles? What does an uncontrolling God actually do? What does it mean to say God loves everyone and everything? How does Jesus fit into a theology of uncontrolling love? If a loving God created the universe, why is evil even possible? What hope do we have if God's love is noncontrolling? How do you know God can't prevent evil? In a conversational style, Oord offers chapter-length answers. The result is a compelling view of God! Questions and Answers for God Can't answers questions clear-eyed thinkers ask. This book deepens our trust in a God of

What Is the Key to Living without Fear? As you look ahead to tomorrow, it is hard not to worry--about financial pressures, family issues, problems at work and so much more. You may even feel helpless as worry threatens to drain your life of joy. But there is good news. Bestselling author Kent Crockett explains how God can guide you, even now, along His chosen path, without your realizing it--from the circumstances you face to the people you meet--to accomplish His plan. Do you feel that the ability to hear God's voice is for other people and not for you? Is it only for people who lived in Biblical times? Not at all! The greatest concern of every Christian parent and teacher is to lead children to grow in their faith and understanding of God. This classic volume uses simple, conversational language to discuss such matters as the nature of God, sin, salvation, the Christian life, the church, prayer and the Second Coming. Widely used by teachers and parents, this valuable book contains eighty-six sections, each followed by discussion questions, a suggested reading, a hymn, and a prayer. More and more pulpits are occupied by motivational speakers rather than preachers. Church congregations are not being given a comprehensive, biblical understanding of the faith. Drawing on his own experience as a pastor in Zambia, Conrad Mbewe tackles issues such as the content of pastoral preaching, how pastoral preaching relates to church life, finding the time to prepare pastoral sermons, and dealing with discouragement. Throughout the book, it is clear that the author's conviction is to see preachers grow strong churches, to build a people for God. "Letter to Jake - Grace, Forgiveness and Trust for God's Young Men" is the most important book, other than the Bible itself, for Christian young men today. It prepares God's young men, possibly living in the last days, for their ultimate battle of their life time - standing on the frontlines as God's spiritual warriors as we possibly live out the pages of Revelations.The problem: God's young men on the spiritual frontlines, are more focused on the thrill of today.Daniel Webster doesn't mess around. He get's right to the heart of the issue and doesn't throw out a bunch of bull. Author Daniel Webster tells it just like it is."Letter to Jake" approaches the Gospel unlike other Christian books, other than the Bible itself. But, then again, Author Daniel Webster isn't your normal Christian author.Daniel's unique brand of honest Christianity sets him apart from all other authors."Letter to Jake - Grace, Forgiveness and Trust for God's Young Men" breaks down three powerfully deep spiritual concepts - grace, forgiveness and trust - in a basic, understandable manner. Daniel uses the language, culture and customs of today's young men to reach them where they are and how they live. Jesus used that approach when he told the story of the Prodigal Son, to give a picture of the heart of God.Jake is the most popular boy's name over the last two decades. The qualities of God's young men who are currently focused on thrill of the moment are the types of strong young men God will use to build His greatest generation ever in the history of the world. We are very possibly watching and living the Biblical last days. We may be living the pages of Revelations in the Bible right now, before our very eyes. God's young men, right now, are the group of guys who will be called upon to step up, stand solidly by their brother and not back down. They are the guys on the spiritual frontlines during the final battle, if we are in the final chapter. Except, God's young men are out partying and playing right now, and don't give a rip.This group of guys will more than likely have to give up their life for their faith. For faith to be strong enough to stand for God and give up one's life, a person must have a firm grip on the three concepts of grace, forgiveness and trust. At that moment, those who call themselves God's young men must have a faith which is real, raw and worth their life, literally. Daniel Webster steps a reader through the process of understanding grace, forgiveness and trust, in a language and simplicity every guy can understand.This book is a letter to the young generation of men who must have real, raw faith. You will only have the spiritual strength and fortitude to stand for God, risking your life, if you know beyond a shadow of a doubt that God's grace and forgiveness is true and real. Your trust in God and God alone will give you the power to lose your life for your faith. Do you have faith like that?You are the type of guy who will be willing to stand for God when the time comes. That fortitude will probably come from all the messes you have done, which you know deep in your heart and soul God's grace and forgiveness is more powerful. Your strong, real, raw faith will come from the reality of how you live your life and personally experienced grace, forgiveness and trust in God with your life. Join Daniel Webster on a spiritual journey and discover grace, forgiveness and trust as it's never been told before. Oh, wait, but it had been told before, by Jesus himself, when He told the story of the Prodigal Son. A New York Times bestseller people can believe in—by "a pioneer of the new urban Christians" (Christianity Today) and the "C.S. Lewis for the 21st century" (Newsweek). Timothy Keller, the founding pastor of Redeemer Presbyterian Church in New York City, addresses the frequent doubts that skeptics, and even ardent believers, have about religion. Using literature, philosophy, real-life conversations, and potent reasoning, Keller explains how the belief in a Christian God is, in fact, a sound and rational one. To true believers he offers a solid platform on which to stand their ground against the backlash to religion created by the Age of Skepticism. And to skeptics, atheists, and agnostics, he provides a challenging argument for pursuing the reason for God. New Expanded Edition - 40% more material. She was shocked and dismayed by the blatant manipulation being used by these wolves to enrich themselves, without any real love for God's people. Selfishness and greed became rampant and still prevails today through much of the so called Christian television, where the beg-a-thons never seem to end. Masterful workers of iniquity hypnotize the masses with false promises of riches by bribing God through sending them offerings, which God never gets or needs. .Susan Puzio documents the downfall of the Oral Roberts family, who seed faith didn't work for, with chapters about Mike Murdock, Benny Hinn, the Copelands, Rod Parsley, Morris Cerullo, TBN, Marcus and Joni Lamb, Paula White and many others. The Holy Spirit: The Feminine Nature of God by Patricia Taylor This book presents the evidence that God is both male and female. No, God does not have a gender because He does not have a physical body, but He clearly reflects masculine and feminine qualities in His nature. In the Old Testament, the God of the Jews, Christians and Muslims is presented as Jehovah (LORD) and also Shekhinah (Holy Spirit). Jehovah God calls Himself Father and carries out that role through provision, protection and discipline. The Shekhinah Glory of God permeated the earth and interacted with God's people. She was often portrayed as a loving, nurturing mother. The words used for the Holy Spirit were originally feminine, but with translations into other languages, the pronouns describing Her were changed to masculine forms. Whether deliberate or not, over time, this quality of the nature of God was lost, and these three religions developed into patriarchal systems that suppressed the importance of feminine input into not only religious systems, but also society as a whole. Many writers and theologians down through history have recognized this fact, but it is denied or overlooked by mainstream religions today. Early Church Fathers (including Clement, Philo, and Jerome), prominent medieval church leaders (Anselm of Canterbury, Bernard of Clairvoux, St. Birgitta of Sweden and many others) and more modern day leaders (Martin Luther, Oswald Chambers, Albert Einstein and Carl Jung) have all supported the truth of the feminine nature of God. Though these people are held in high regard by many, this aspect of their reasoning is completely ignored. Why is this subject not taken seriously? A.W. Tozer said it is impossible to have sound moral practices and right attitudes without a clear view of who God is. Billy Graham said the next step in the growth of the Church is to better understand the nature and work of the Holy Spirit in our lives. There are many small voices who are promoting this truth of God, but they are not being heard by the average person. It is time to shout this truth to the world and watch how it can transform the position of women and bring balance and health to hurting families and societies. Whether you are a Christian, Jew, Muslim or Atheist, this information is important to you personally because religious views have, and still do, establish our value systems and political issues at a national level. Why is it so important to love the Creator of the galaxies? What does it mean to love God? Jesus taught us that the greatest commandment given to mankind is to love the Lord with all our mind, heart, and strength, and yet what it means to love God can be a profound mystery. Maurice Roberts explains the biblical meaning of love for God and shows how such love moves us to do many things, from thirsting for God to praying for our neighbor's salvation. He shows that love for God is like a sweet fire that must lift all our hearts, all our souls, all our minds, and all our strength in a holy flame toward God. When it comes to having a desire to see things change, it is obvious that most Christians are ready for it! The problem is that churches have tried every program available, and yet they still feel that there is something missing from their ministry. This book takes a fresh look at ministry and challenges us to consider that we may have actually left God out of the ministry equation, by not realizing how desperately we need for God's Spirit to set us on "fire!" Take a journey through the Bible and discover for yourself, how God's fire is present when God is on the move! Discover how God's fire reveals his character as well as our calling to be transformed into the image of Christ! You will also discover how being one of God's Fire Starters can be one of the most exciting adventures of anyone's life! Donald A. Broadwater was born in Roanoke, Virginia and spent most of his early life growing up around the Blue Ridge Mountains. He graduated from Covenant College and Westminster Theological Seminary, and for the past three decades, Don and his family have been on an adventure that has taken them from America to Australia. He is married to Gloria and has two grown children from their 37-year marriage. God has unfolded a unique ministry of discipleship that has sought to encourage people to take their next step on a Journey in Jesus. This ministry is needed because our journeys are as unique as God who is fashioning them for us. He has also spoken for church camps and seminars, which have included the international conference, "Fire on the Mountain," on Mt. Tambourine in Queensland, Australia. "In Taking Our Cities for God, you will explore dynamic and life-changing strategies to help you tear down the strongholds that have held your community back from its full spiritual potential"--Page 4 of cover. Our spirits are constantly searching for a deeper connection to God. In this book Tim Riter introduces us to the God who can meet all of our needs and gives us the resources to continually draw nearer to our Creator. As the pastor of an inner-city church in New York City, Timothy Keller has compiled a list of the most frequently voiced 'doubts' sceptics bring to his church, as well as the most important reasons for faith. In THE REASON

FOR GOD, he addresses each doubt and explains each reason. Keller uses literature, philosophy, real-life conversations, and reasoning to explain how faith in a Christian God is a soundly rational belief, held by thoughtful people of intellectual integrity with a deep compassion for those who truly want to know the truth. Becoming a new Christian can be a daunting task for any new believer and common misconceptions of that are thinking that everything is going to change in an instant. All your problems will suddenly disappear and your character changes instantly. Wrong? God's work in you has only just begun and in this book you will see how even as experienced Christians we allow life to get in the way of our relationship with our heavenly father. Many times over we lose hope during really trying times but instead of relying on God we try to fix our problems by ourselves and in the process make them much worse than they really are. Prosperous living is a choice you can make. If your life is in chaos and a big mess of bills and debt; it probably feels like God does not want you to prosper. Do not be discouraged: God wants you to be blessed and live in abundance. Once we grasp the fact that God wants us to prosper, we can begin to turn things around. Ferguson guides us, step by step, to see the greatness of God in his majesty and creative power; to sense the tenderness of his care and the marvel of his love. I am a temple of God. You are a temple of God. His Spirit dwells within us. How awesome is that? And just how conscientious are we in our dedication to keeping that dwelling place pure for Him? His Word serves as a mirror for examination of the soul. When we look into it, do we come away with hearts assured that the housekeeping we are doing for Him is deserving of the commendation, "Well done, good and faithful servant?" The Heavenly Master we serve has given us His all. He merits no less than our 'all' in return. THIS BOOK WILL RELEASE YOU TO DO THE WILL OF GOD FOR YOUR LIFE! In A Spiritual Awakening, revivalist Tommie Zito releases Christians to do the will of God with fearless faith. With years of successful evangelism to his credit, the author boldly decries the state of the Sunday morning ritual: The voice of the Lord is relegated to pointless sermons and denominational drivel. Religion has paralyzed the passion and desire of the believer to do the will of God. The Church is suffocating under the spirit of slumber, while believing all is well. BUT THERE IS HOPE--YOU! You and millions like you have the call, the passion and the desire to do what religion and its accompanying litany of legalism can never accomplish. You can change the world, your country, your city, your neighborhood, your home. Zito calls on believers to the last-day Church's mandate to be a "house of prayer," if it is to move in an anointing which will make the world take notice of the Most High God. Zito notes, "A church bulletin contains more social activities and outings than times set aside to really pray and seek the Father's face." The power of the Holy Spirit awaits all those who will respond to the burden of this book: to shake off religious irrelevancy and to do the will of God despite all opposition. Internationally respected scholar Richard Bauckham offers a brief, engaging study of divine revelation in Scripture. He probes the deep meaning of well-known moments in the biblical story in order to address the key question the Bible is designed to answer: Who is God? Accessible for laypeople and important to scholars, this volume begins by exploring three key events in the Bible in which God is revealed: Jacob's dream at Bethel (the revelation of the divine presence), Moses at the burning bush (the revelation of the divine Name), and Moses on Mount Sinai (the revelation of the divine character). In each case, Bauckham traces these themes through the rest of Scripture. He then shows how the New Testament builds on the Old by exploring three revelatory events in Mark's Gospel, events that reveal the Trinity: Jesus's baptism, transfiguration, and crucifixion. This book is based on the Frumentius Lectures for 2015 at the Ethiopian Graduate School of Theology in Addis Ababa and on the Hayward Lectures for 2018 at Acadia Divinity College, Nova Scotia. May I Leave Heaven If I Get Bored? points out the lesser-known dark and morbid aspects of the Bible that congregations never hear from religious leaders. Alexander Bless asks controversial questions for believers as well as non-believers to consider. What was God doing before creation? If God created everything out of nothing (Gen.1: 1) did He exist in the middle of nothing? Was He the only "something" in nothing? In the flood story God destroyed humans as punishment for their sins. Why did He also destroy animals? Why did God create humans with all their human failings and then punish them for it? Why do you have to fear God? How can you love God if you fear Him? If a Muslim converts to Christianity and dies does he go to Muslim hell or Christian heaven?
